Ports - Mangalore - Development - Sanction of grant.

Ref: Correspondence resting with letter No.B.6.17108/53 dated 23-3-1954, from the Commissioner, Mangalore Municipality

The Commissioner, Mangalore Municipalit is informed that the Government of India have agreed to give assistance to the State Government by way of partially interest free loans to the extent of Rs.10.39 lakhs for the development of seven (i.e. Kakinada, Masulipatnam, Nagapattinam, Cuddalore, Tuticorin, Kozhikode and Mangalore) of the important minor ports in the Madras and Andhra States during the period of the first Five Year Plan. Of this loan amount, a sum of about Rs.1,15,000/- has been allocated to the Mangalore port for the execution of 4 schemes costing Rs.3,30,000/- approved by the Government of India. The Commissioner is also informed that as the loan amount has to be allocated between seven ports, it is not possible to allocate a larger sum to the Mangalore Port.
